Wendy and John –

As indicated below, we think the parties should exchange their lists as soon as possible. John, we request a call at 12:30 to discuss timing on this issue so that the parties have an opportunity to meet and confer over scheduling in good faith before the 5 PM deadline. This is an urgent issue and given the Court's Order last night we must work together to comply as best we can.

James

Subject: Waymo v Uber - Deposition Scheduling

Counsel and John -

Given the Court's Second Order re Scheduling of Depositions (Dkt. 679), we suggest that each side agree to a prompt exchange of its top ten depositions (we propose noon or 1 PM), so that we can check with our witnesses and work out a proposed schedule to submit to the Court at 5 PM. That way, the Court may not assign dates that conflict with witnesses' pre-existing conflicts. We look forward to discussing this proposal on the 10 AM call.
